DESCRIPTION

Nikkei Business offers unsurpassed access to Japan's upscale business and financial decision makers. More than 80% of subscribers are top level executives and directors. Their average age is 48, and their average income 12 million Yen. These subscribers are corporate leaders looking for the best in financial management tools and strategies essential for effective decision making.

The professionals who have prepaid subscriptions to Nikkei Publications are:

- Generally more affluent
- Have higher levels of education
- Part of the world's second largest direct mail consumer market (outside of the U.S., Japan orders more items via direct mail than any other country.)

Please note:

-- NIKKEI publications are printed in Japanese (Kanji, Hiragana, Katakana alphabets).

-- Mail pieces must be in Japanese and pre-approved by Nikkei.

-- Payment must be made (bank wire) in YEN. USD prices are available upon request with some additional fees.

-- Prepayment is required on all orders.

-- Approval time takes approximately 5 working days.

-- Mailer must use an approved NIKKEI lettershop in Japan.

-- We will run counts on Nikkei after a sample mail piece and mail date is provided.
