DESCRIPTION

The List of Business Establishments provides updated information from economic units whose activities are classified in all sectors of the North America Industry Classification System (NAICS Mexico).

Currently the list provides information on two types of economic units:

-The economic unit is in a single physical location and combines actions and resources under the control of a single entity owning or controlling to perform any economic activity. It includes dwellings in which activities are carried out.

-The company organization, owned by a single legal entity that performs one or more economic activities, which can be located or operated in several locations.
